Day Pitney Prepared to Assist Clients in Requesting Designation as "Essential" Business under New York's COVID-19 "Work from Home" Executive Order

On Friday, March 20, New York's Governor Andrew Cuomo issued Executive Order 202.8, effective March 22, directing that all businesses and not-for-profit entities in the State of New York, employ, to the maximum extent possible, any telecommuting or work from home procedures that they can safely utilize. Under the Executive Order, employers in the State of New York are required to reduce their in-person workforces at any workplace locations by 100 percent no later than March 22 at 8:00 p.m.

Previously, the State of New York's Empire State Development Corporation (ESDC) issued its "Guidance for Determining Whether a Business Enterprise is Subject to a Workforce Reduction." Businesses not designated as operating in categories initially identified as essential by the Executive Order or the ESDC guidance may be designated essential by ESDC after submitting to ESDC a Request for Designation as an Essential Business. Day Pitney attorneys are studying precedent and preparing to promptly submit client requests to ESDC for designation as an "essential" business or seek other relief for purposes of gaining a full or partial exemption from the in-person restrictions of Executive Order 202.8, as appropriate.

The ESDC guidance offers a non-exclusive list of types of business that will be deemed essential, as follows:
