Overview

Jennifer "Jen" Solberg represents a wide range of clients, from institutional investors to small family offices, in the acquisition and sale of commercial real estate throughout the United States, including office, retail, multifamily and industrial properties. She also represents local and national real estate developers in the acquisition and sale of development properties throughout New Jersey.

Jen also advises clients on the financing and leasing of commercial properties. She has worked on numerous loan amendments and workouts and has represented institutional and private lenders in the acquisition of underperforming commercial office and multi-family properties throughout New Jersey by deed in lieu of foreclosure.

Jen also works closely with clients and title companies to review and resolve complex title issues.
