Day Pitney's Tasha Dickinson and Sandra Ferrera Recognized Among Florida Trend's Women Leaders in Law

Day Pitney LLP is pleased to announce that Florida Partners Tasha K. Dickinson and Sandra M. Ferrera have once again been named to Florida Trend's Legal Elite NOTABLE Women Leaders in Law list. This marks Dickinson's fourth consecutive year on the list and Ferrera's second. The distinction honors women attorneys across Florida who excel in their legal practices and make outstanding contributions through leadership, mentorship, and community service.

“Tasha and Sandy have each built remarkable careers while helping strengthen the firm and the communities we serve in Florida,” said Manuel Garcia-Linares, Managing Partner of Day Pitney's Florida offices. “They are trusted colleagues and leaders who bring tremendous judgment, commitment, and integrity to everything they do. It is especially meaningful to see them recognized year after year, and we are proud to celebrate this continued recognition of their contributions to the legal community.”

Tasha K. Dickinson
Tasha K. Dickinson, a Florida Bar Board Certified Wills, Trusts and Estates lawyer, advises individuals and families on sophisticated estate planning and trust and estate administration matters. A Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), Dickinson serves on Day Pitney's Executive Board, leads the firm's trusts and estates practice in South Florida, and is the senior partner in its West Palm Beach office. She has held several leadership roles within The Florida Bar and is an adjunct professor at the University of North Carolina School of Law. Dickinson has also been recognized by Chambers High Net Worth (click here for Chambers methodology), The Best Lawyers in America® for Estate Planning and Probate (click here for Best Lawyers methodology), Florida Super Lawyers (click here for Super Lawyers methodology), and other legal and business publications. She earned her B.A. and J.D. from the University of North Carolina and is admitted to practice in Florida, New York, and North Carolina.

Sandra M. Ferrera
Sandra M. Ferrera represents developers, lenders, borrowers, and other clients in complex commercial real estate transactions, including acquisitions, sales, development, financing, leasing, and condominium matters. She is a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL) and an active leader in Florida's legal and business communities. Ferrera is a Past President of the Cuban American Bar Association and serves on the boards of the Cuban American Bar Foundation and the University of Miami School of Law Alumni Association. She also teaches Mortgage Law as an adjunct professor at the University of Miami School of Law. Her professional recognitions include The Best Lawyers in America® for Real Estate Law (click here for Best Lawyers methodology) and Bisnow's South Florida Women Leading Real Estate (click here for Bisnow methodology). She earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law and her B.A. from Florida International University. She is admitted to practice in Florida.

According to Florida Trend, honorees must be Florida-based members of The Florida Bar in good standing with at least 15 years of legal experience and demonstrate significant professional impact, mentorship, and leadership in professional and community organizations.
