Mark Romance Appointed Co-Chair of Pretrial Practice And Discovery Committee of ABA Litigation Section

Day Pitney Litigation Partner Mark A. Romance has been appointed to serve as co-chair of the Pretrial Practice and Discovery Committee of the 202409, one of the largest sections of the ABA. In his role, Romance will work with the committee to increase membership, deliver meaningful benefits to members, and implement the goals and strategies of the Section's strategic plan. The appointment is effective for one year. Recently, Romance completed his third term as co-chair of the Commercial and Business Litigation Committee.

Romance, a seasoned trial and appellate attorney based in the firm's Miami office, represents diverse clients in commercial litigation and other complex litigation, including non-compete, trade secret, intellectual property, real estate, product liability, product defect, and estate and trust litigation.
